

Purpose and Values Audit

This audit is intended to help you establish a baseline for the health of your purpose and values. Whether or not you are aware of your purpose or values, you do have them, and they are affecting your daily life.

Instructions

Respond to the statements honestly, answering yes or no.

Statements 1 – 6 are personal in focus.

Statements 7 – 11 are church community in focus.

		Yes	No
1	I know what my purpose is or I have a good sense of what my purpose is
2	The outlook for my purpose is positive, based on hope
3	The 'fuel' source for my purpose is internal (not external)
4	The focus of my purpose is a worthy cause and beyond self
5	I know the values that shape my decisions and behaviours (Usually 3 – 5)
6	I am (and my purpose and values are) regularly re-aligned to Jesus
7	I have people in my life who would call me out if I began to drift from my alignment to Jesus (and purpose & values)
8	I understand the purpose (Mission) & values of my church
9	I know how my purpose and values fit into my church's purpose and values
10	I regularly engage my purpose and values within my church community
11	I believe my church community is on a good path
Total Yes

Score (Total of Yes responses)

9-11 may indicate your purpose and values are alive and well. Very healthy

5-8 may indicate your purpose and values are alive, but need attention in 1 or more areas

0 -4 may indicate your purpose and values need attention, support, and encouragement

Alignment: Choose one to three areas you want to improve

1

Starting with one, what will you need to do to see improvement in that area? (Note, questions 5 & 6 are priorities)
